Supplementary Figure S1 Brain MRI findings; (A, B) Axial and coronal T2-weighted images at age 5 months do not reveal definite brain abnormalities. (C, D) Axial and coronal T2-weighted images at age 18 months show enlargement of the ventricular system and subarachnoid spaces in keeping with mild cerebral atrophic changes. There is concomitant mild hyperintensity of the deep cerebral white matter. MRI, magnetic resonance imaging.