Prizes to be won at EUROSON 2017

EFSUMB offers an annual 500 euro prize for the best published paper, that is an original article published in a journal up to three years before EUROSON 2017. The EFSUMB member's National Society should propose up to two articles as soon as possible. All the details of the criteria for consideration are listed on the EFSUMB website under the Research heading.

If you are under 39 years of age and are nominated by your National Society you can have the chance to win the Young Investigator Award prize at EUROSON 2017 Ljubljana, Slovenia, which has been increased to 3000 euro. The prize money can be divided between the best technical and clinical presentation.

The Walter Krienitz Society offers an annual prize of 500 euro for the best oncological abstract submitted to a EUROSON Congress. The abstracts will be considered by a specially appointed jury of EFSUMB Committee members to evaluate the best paper. Register your abstracts online now.

If you missed our webinar on Paediatric CEUS you can visit the EFSUMB website to view it in the archive section. Our next webinar will take place on 4 May at 18.00 CET on how to perform CEUS with lectures from Dr Robert Eckersley on the Technical prerequisites, Prof Fabio Piscaglia on Clinical prerequisites and Prof Christoph F Dietrich offering Tips and Tricks.
